Who we are

WSUN was founded in 1991. We are managed by Service Users.

We are an inclusive organisation which aims to support and empower people to have a voice about the services they receive, to promote their wellbeing and independence.

WSUN supports people to:

- Improve and Influence Services
- Raise Issues
- Promote Good Practice
- Influence our Communities

Who can join?

People who live in Wiltshire and Swindon and use health or social care services.

Membership is free

How can you be involved?

- Regular newsletters and information
- Invitations to forums
- Taking part in surveys
- Involvement in projects
- Directly working with service providers and other organisations

You can be involved at a level to suit you. We can provide practical assistance including transport, travel expenses and enablers.
